Lil Tecca

Yeah
Alright
Yeah
Yeah, yeah

Everything dead when the money involved
Seen the whole world, bitch, I been on tour
Pavin' the wave, I ain't been on yours
Shawty got bread, she been on Vogue
Since a young nigga, I been in them stores
I got rich before I graduated Lawrence
Know it's dumb, but I still wasn't sure
Know it's dumb, but I still wanted more
Feelin' lost made me turn to a boss
My choice count, this shit come with a cost
Every "no" cost a hundred or more
They got no purpose like they live at the morgue
Made mistakes, yeah, this shit wasn't taught
I'm the sauce, yeah, this shit wasn't bought
On your own block, you live like a tourist
She double text, every time I ignore it

No, my nigga, they don't play about me
All my bitches, they gon' stay by me
Got a problem havin' nigga too close
Unless you glo, better stay five feet, yeah
You thought this life, it was cheap, yeah
None of this shit come in free, yeah
You might invest in a freak
You know this shit, it could get a lil' deep
Don't gotta say, I'ma do what I'm on it
Life GTA, bitch, a nigga been wanted
Just got the lot, I might put that Benz on it
This a new play, I might put my friends on it
Look at my bitch, look at my wrist
Look at my clique, you see we been ballin'
All on my phone, she said she been callin'
You against me, then put the bands on it

Everything dead when the money involved
Seen the whole world, bitch, I been on tour
Pavin' the wave, I ain't been on yours
Shawty got bread, she been on Vogue
Since a young nigga, I been in them stores
I got rich before I graduated Lawrence
Know it's dumb, but I still wasn't sure
Know it's dumb, but I still wanted more
Feelin' lost made me turn to a boss
