

The Truth

Lil Tecca

Yeah, hundred on me, got a hundred on you
We did a lot, got nothin' to prove
Tell you a lie, you wanted the truth
Yeah, seen you before, it's déjà vu
Come roll up, I'm high by noon
Pour your cup, I'm blowin' that fume

I told you already, I know what I want
You tell me to grow up every time you done
You tryna front, I let her
Who would've thought I ever?
Who would've thought I can now?
Say you wan' talk one on one
Know you outside, I'm out there now

I'm leanin', aye, I'm tweakin', aye
I seen it all, I'm geekin', aye
She love Adderall, she love when I call
I'm like twenty to the East
You fiendin', you wildin'
I'm up, you peakin'
Shroom high, like everything got a meaning
I'm locked in for a second
I been on my shit, this all came out of nowhere
You chasin' your dreams, then come here
Bro wanted the ho with the gold hair
Not gon' fly tonight, yeah, I wouldn't go there
Said that she right, yeah, who really know? Yeah
Don't wanna see you not on time, whoa
And for this, waited a long time, yeah
After this, it won't be no dialing
I gotta let you know, all I'm saying

Yeah, hundred on me, got a hundred on you
We did a lot, got nothin' to prove
Tell you a lie, you wanted the truth
Yeah, seen you before, it's déjà vu
Come roll up, I'm high by noon
Pour your cup, I'm blowin' that fume

I told you already, I know what I want
You tell me to grow up every time you done
You tryna front, I let her
Who would've thought I ever?
Who would've thought I can now?
Say you wan' talk one on one
Know you outside, I'm out there now
