

True To The Game

Lil Tecca

Oh

They gon' think that all these dollars cope for the pain, yeah
(Damn, Spaceman, you out of here) Oh yeah
(Census, what you cookin'?)

I just got a hundred, that's like two for each lane
They gon' think that all these dollars cope for the pain, yeah
I ask her what she finna do for the fame
When you get this money, just hope that you see when they change (Yeah)

And stay true to the game, true to the game
True to the game, true to the game
And stay true to the game, true to the game (Yeah)
True to the game, true to the game (Yeah)
How you see these dollars that's on me?
Now that I glowed up, can't even talk on me (Nah, nah)
When I was down, I swear you tried to flex on me (Flex on me)
When I was down, I swear they should've bet on me (Should've bet on me)

Now how that work? (Uh, uh) Now how that work? (How that work?)
Now how that work? (Yeah, yeah) Now how that work?
Girl, tell me how that work (Work, work) How that work? Ayy, ayy
How that work? (How that work?) How that work? Yeah

What's the move? What's the move?
Lot of K rounds, I'll hit you in your dome
Nine milli', milli', crack your medulla
Bad hoes in the telly going super
Eighty dollar Henney, pour up on my bitches
Stretch the money, watch you grow from a distance
These bitches flock if you got bread, they some pigeons
I let my dogs off the leash, I tell 'em "Sic 'em"
Tryna get a hundred guns, bitch, we stucked up
Don't give a fuck 'bout what you claim, we ain't the same, dawg
I ain't rockin' G-Star, this the BAPE stuff
Me and bro was selling drugs just to get the 'fits up, yeah, yeah
You don't know my pain, nigga, stop it
Don't tell me to sit down, I'm the one in the cockpit
I put that bread on your head, they gon' get it
Thirty round clip, my nigga, it's hangin' out my pocket

I just got a hundred, that's like two for each lane
They gon' think that all these dollars cope for the pain, yeah
I ask her what she finna do for the fame
When you get this money, just hope that you see when they change (Yeah)

And stay true to the game, true to the game
True to the game, true to the game
And stay true to the game, true to the game (Yeah)
True to the game, true to the game (Yeah)
How you see these dollars that's on me? (Dollars, dollars, dollars)
Now that I glowed up, you can't even talk on me (Nah, nah)
When I was down, I swear you tried to flex on me (Flex on me)
When I was down, I swear they should've bet on me (Should've bet on me)

Now how that work? (Uh, uh) Now how that work? (How that work?)
