

Life Changed

Lil Tjay

(Dmac on the fuckin' track)
(SephGotTheWaves)

Bro caught a lick because he ran out of money, shit fed him tonight
Trying to make best in the world, this giving shit never was bright
Comfortable living was never aight
Down on my hands was never the type
I had to get up and better my life
This was one lucky game of rolling dice

Life changed, life changed
I'm moving on to the better things
Life changed, life changed
I know they want to see me die, not change

Okay no way
I found my starter kit now I won't play
I been working every day
And it's just facts I'm here to stay

Money keep coming in, straight from the gutter I opened the door
Hottest been comin', that money I love it, I gotta get more
Walked in the spot and I shut down the store
I need a couple milli for a tour
I done set goals so high, that's what God got in store
This I need, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Roll more weed, hey hey hey, hey hey hey
Try me, I dare dare dare dare dare
'Cause we don't care care care care care

Bro caught a lick because he ran out of money, shit fed him tonight
Trying to make best in the world, this giving shit never was bright
Comfortable living was never aight
Down on my hands was never the type
I had to get up and better my life
This was one lucky game of rolling dice

Life changed, life changed
I'm moving on to the better things
Life changed, life changed
I know they want to see me die, not change

I ain't really stressing over nothing, just be gliding
Young niggas everything against us, we survivin'
Tryna find love but my people keep dying
Tryna bring everyone out, I'm trying
I don't like to groan but my insides crying
She say this, she say that, better stop this lying Numbers going up, shit flying
My momma happy, ain't no more sighing

I done got some checks, had to flex, I done bossed up
If you fuck with them, then stay with them don't come across us
Fucked up, movin' sloppy before and it done cost us
And we don't listen to nobody, we enforcers just know

Bro caught a lick because he ran out of money, shit fed him tonight

Trying to make best in the world, this giving shit never was bright
Comfortable living was never aight
Down on my hands was never the type
I had to get up and better my life
This was one lucky game of rolling dice

Life changed, life changed
I'm moving on to the better things
Life changed, life changed
I know they want to see me die, not change
