

Stressed

Lil Tjay

All I do
Is stay up all night, losing sleep over you

She used to tell me, "Daddy I'm too stressed"
It's nothing less
Than true love, promise you were nothing like the rest
You told me you would always be my side, down to ride anytime
But the vibe givin' me, it's all lies
And I don't know what's goin' on
But you been movin' odd, I know something wrong

If I ain't what you want, then find something better
We can do whatever
But it's gon' leave emotions torn

Real nigga, 'cause I know how to adapt
Not only that but I be spittin' facts when I rap
When I first met you, we was spending hours on the Jack
Now we always argue, it's like every hour with you, whack
I can't feel no sorrow, once I get over you, then there's that
My heart not to borrow, bitches don't want love, they just be cap
I'm a hoodlum, good one
But I'm tact, can't be playin' games like that, ain't like that

Used to tell me, "Daddy I'm too stressed"
It's nothing less
Than true love, promise you were nothing like the rest
You told me you would always be my side, down to ride anytime
But the vibe givn' me, it's all lies
And I don't know what's goin' on
But you been movin' odd, I know something wrong

If I ain't what you want, then find something better
We can do whatever
But it's gon' leave emotions torn

All I do
Is think about you
Thinkin' 'bout the places that we been to Thinkin' 'bout the shit, the shit we been through
It's true
I'm not the only one who did some wrongs, baby
You was hidin' shit up in your phone, baby
No, I ain't get us here on my own

If you don't wanna be with me
Then I'ma have to set you free
And if you gon' leave then
Go to find what you need

Emotions torn
Emotions torn, yeah
Emotions torn, emotions torn, emotions torn

Used to tell me, "Daddy I'm too stressed"
It's nothing less
Than true love, promise you were nothing like the rest

You told me you would always be my side, down to ride anytime
But the vibe givin' me, it's all lies
And I don't know what's goin' on
But you been movin' odd, I know something wrong

If I ain't what you want, then find something better
We can do whatever
But it's gon' leave emotions torn

All I do
Is stay up all night, losing sleep over you
