Tell me I'm different, I'm not like the last one
I wanna be good now, I know I'm the bad one
All alone in my castle, her touch hurts me like a tattoo
I like the pain though, baby come closer
Where did the time go, we're so much older
Pulled up in a 2 door
I'm too rich, but I used to be too poor
Alone in my castle, can't trust a soul these days
They love to lie to your face
I have less friends than switchblades

Alone in my castle, no one can enter and I can't escape
My heart is easy to break, but these racks keep it in place
Die alone, that's the only way
Don't even try to run, unless you're running towards the sun
Burn me to ash roll me in a blunt

Tell me I'm different, I'm not like the last one
I wanna be good now, I know I'm the bad one
All alone in my castle, her touch hurts me like a tattoo
I like the pain though, baby come closer
Where did the time go, we're so much older
Pulled up in a 2 door
I'm too rich, but I used to be too poor
Alone in my castle, no one can enter and I can't escape
