

Admit It

Lil' Wayne

I'm a thick motherfucker, I sip this on his lap
With a hand on his shooter, I lay them niggas back
Got somethin' for them niggas that react
I'm a bad motherfucker, I got this nigga's back

She said I know you ain't had yourself a good thick bitch in a minute
I saw some pictures of you boo'd up, it looks like your starting to like 'em skinny
I said girl, you're a trip
She said "I might be a trip but I ain't trippin'"
She said, "watch these hoes cause they leeches like robbin givens"
I say no [?]
She was sittin' on my lap and you know a nigga strapped
I know she feeled it
It's crazy outchea, I'm just protecting myself, you know I'm winnin'
She say, "I get it and if anything was to happen to you I be livid"
You ain't gotta be worried 'bout that, I kill a pussy nigga, put his head on exhibit
Cause they think they caught a big fish till his body came up drippin'
I treat her legs like like a grand opening, smile while I cut the ribbon
I took a pill, she took a pill, [?] 20 minutes now we feel it
She said "I know you probably hit this shit a lot but you the shit in my opi nion"
I said it never gets old, thought I'd never say never but I did it
She said "Who you kiddin' boy, you like a thick bitch, big booty, big tittie s"
I admit it, big booty, big titties, I admit it

She bout that foolishness, bout that trouble too
Booty on bubble, titties so fuckable

Okay, I know you ain't had yourself a good thick bitch in a minute
So I flick [?] boy you never liked them skinny
You tell me I'm a trip, well I might be a trip but I ain't trippin'

But I got these guns on me right now
I got these drugs on me right now
I got the feds on me right now

She took her clothes off and I stopped
Looked at my watch like "fuck it why not?"
Guess I could fuck her once then I'm out
Fucked so many times a nigga lost count, Lord
She said "[?] get a quick fix, hit it quit it
But you know you ain't been with a good thick bitch in a minute"
I said you ain't never learned that I never say never but I did it
