

Millions From Now

Lil' Wayne

Yeah (How to make it here, 101)
Southside (Make sure everybody first hearin' it)
Uhh, attention, Toni

A million dollars from now, I won't remember you
A million dollars from now, I won't remember your ass (Remember your ass)
A million dollars from now, I won't remember you (I won't remember you)
A million dollars from now, I won't remember your ass

Soon as I land, they come with a bag
Tell her, I just got it, it don't have a tag
I fuck with the strippers, they helpin' my brand
On Lanvins, the shoes laces look like a crayon
Told 'em, "No biggie, I'm makin' them bands"
Flight that go overseas, I take a Xan'
I get a deal and then I get some equity
When I get money then I'll buy some land
Yeah, I got G.O.A.T. with me, know what I'm sayin'?
She got some good throat, you know what I'm sayin'?
Been in the kitchen, you know I ain't payin'
You can ask chef, let me know how I pan out
Garage full of food, and I'm gon' pull the Lamb' out
Mm, yeah, you know what I'm sayin'?
The handshake I gave you was my last handout
Mm, yeah, you know what I'm sayin'?

A million dollars from now, I won't remember you (I won't remember you)
A million dollars from now, I won't remember your ass (Yeah)
A million dollars from now, I won't remember you (I won't remember you)
A million dollars from now, I won't remember your ass

A million dollars from now
I won't remember you, I done forgot
I won't forget how I got what I got
Cry me a river 'cause I'm on a yacht
Stack night after night, after commas it's dots
Remind me, forgot that it's slime over thots
Don't make me pop, cast a nine on the opps
It's Tunechi and Titty Boi, minus the bra
Wait, a million dollars from now
I'ma feel like I'm a million dollars away
I done put all this ice on me, this Jesus Christ
It look like it cost a million dollars to pay
Lookin' like I make a million dollars a day
Fly as fuck, that's a flight with no delay
Wait, a million dollars from now
Got nine hundred nine-nine million dollars to make, shit

A million dollars from now, I won't remember you (I won't remember you)
A million dollars from now, I won't remember your ass (Yeah)
A million dollars from now, I won't remember you (I won't remember you)
A million dollars from now, I won't remember your ass
