

Never Mind

Lil' Wayne

I'm a pimp, under pressure but it's necessary
Treat a bad fish better than a veterinary Never treat the secondary sweet as February
I can turn the best into adversary
I tried, no really, really I tried
Although I'm really, really up
I'm still gonna give you all my downtime
Yeah, yeah, yeah

I, I, got a lot on my mind, so my slime don't be surprised if I cry, I cry
He said, "Why? ", I said, "Why? ", he said, "Damn my nigga, nevermind", oh n o
That's why I just get high, I like wonderin' why does time go by?
Go, go, is this love, is it lust, is it drugs?
All I know is I tried
Is this love, is this lust, is it drugs?
All I know is I tried
Thought I was done tryna love
I guess I love tryna love

I'm so careful but today I just don't care
Out my head, we so faded, we can't make it up my stairs
We fuck right there
Not so lucky but tonight I just crapped out
Vegas sucks, I'm still gambling with her, no protection Protect what?
'Cause I mean, I'm the one she sells her soul too
That's because she knows, I don't buy dreams
I'm the one, she comes and goes
But whatever, who knows? Nigga, not me
I'm the one she does the most, when she do the most
At least, the most, at least
Yeah, yeah, yeah

I'm a pimp, under pressure but it's necessary
Treat a bad bitch better than a veterinary
Eat a bad bitch unless she got that hairy, hairy
I could take her ex out of her vocabulary

I, yeah, got a lot on my mind, so my slime don't be surprised if I cry, I cr

We ain't no junkies but today we're like soul white
Whenever we lie
She don't judge me, though I may need her to be the one to give me life
'Cause I mean, I'm the one she sells her soul to
