Lil' Wayne

If lovin' me is wrong, I don't wanna be right, then bitch you hatin'
I'm never wrong, one time thought I was wrong and I was only mistaken
I live all alone, no house telephone, talk to you later
I'm never home, one time I thought I was home and it was only the matrix

Off button, pause button, stop button, lock button
Belly button, big ol' titties she pop buttons, head buttin'
Versace button down unbuttoned to the top button
Percocets that's my buttons, hit the pop button
Psychopath, blunt big, big as Mama June off the diet plan, smokin' science lab
I should have a tattoo that say, "I'm not like my dad" Jesus Christ amen
My hand in the psychic's hand, she see righteous plans
I see business plans then I lose my mind and my attention span
She see empty hands like, "Oooh, Lordy," smellin' like Cool Water
Y'all got them new Cartier, the Rollie was too salty
That's rich nigga problems, lil whoadie
My little bitch body a trophy
Naked pics, five in the morning, sunglasses, smile emoji
Pull up on the opps, surprise party

Rest In peace, I rest in peace and harmony
I don't talk, I speak, after I pray, I preach
I don't play, I cheat, after I stay, I leave
The fork in the road, grab the fork and eat
Turn that piggy bank to some hog head cheese
But you doin' nothing while they sayin' nothing
And never worth nothing, but it's always free, psychopath
Blunt big, big as Mama June off the diet plan, smokin' science lab

I should have tattoo that say "I'm nothin' like your man"
Jesus Christ, Amen!
My hand in the psychic' hand
She see righteous plans, I see power plans
She take my hands put 'em in her pants
Do the hyphy dance then I wipe my hands
Feeling like Our Father
Should I get off my high horse to get on my flying horses
That's rich nigga problems, lil whoadie
