

DEPRESSION

Lil Xan

Depression turns into obsession
I like the girl, thought she was my whole damn world
Boy was I so fucking wrong
Tryna text won't pick up, tryna call now I'm stressed, get upset

Depression turns into obsession
I like the girl, thought she was my whole damn world
Boy was I so fucking wrong
Tryna text won't pick up, tryna call now I'm stressed, get upset

Don't wanna use my heart for a lesson
But maybe I just needed your rejection
Sometimes I know might be the best protection
But in the end I still feel like I need direction
Lost in your pretty lies, don't know what to do
Calling you when I could be with someone new
Now I'm working, just so I don't have to think of you
Got me hurting, I'm staying high to disguise my mood

Depression turns into obsession
I like the girl, thought she was my whole damn world
Boy was I so fucking wrong
Tryna text won't pick up, tryna call now I'm stressed, get upset

Depression turns into obsession

Boy was I so fucking wrong
Tryna text won't pick up, tryna call now I'm stressed, get upset

Having all these feelings is what turned me to a villain
Losing your distractions made me focus on these millions
Got a new one on the way, but she knows we just chilling
I wanted to get over you that's the way I'm healing girl
You're the only one to tell me no
Maybe that's why I can't let it go
I got motion I can't be emotional
But I left your pictures hanging up cause I'm still holding on yeah

Depression turns into obsession
