Lil Xan

Yeah (Xanarchy)

Let's go

Living in the moment, I ain't ever going back
I told my family I will make it, please just relax
And if this ain't an indicator that I'm moving fast
I'm climbing to the top and I ain't ever looking back
It's a new day, let's just runaway
2020 ain't the same
People walk in coffins, we don't stop it but we play it safe
Please just put the gun away
I remember summer days, I remember better days
I remember

Winter grey skies never wanna fade away
When your friends look at you and don't remember your name
I got a spending problem, I might just go and buy a few things
And I just got a new brand new lease for my Range
And I might just pull up real quick, ooh, I'm sorry, that's your bitch
I didn't mean to call her that, this life ain't make no sense to me
But sometimes I feel like they gon' kill me like I'm Kennedy
And I quit all the bad drugs just to smoke and drink some Hennessy
And if you got a problem you can drop it, it's my industry
I'm going super crazy, I just hope you feel my energy
And if I die next week I really hope that you remember me
Them tattoos on my face, I had to make them my identity

Living in the moment, I ain't ever going back
I told my family I will make it, please just relax
And if this ain't an indicator that I'm moving fast
I'm climbing to the top and I ain't ever looking back
It's a new day, let's just runaway
2020 ain't the same
People walk in coffins, we don't stop it but we play it safe
Please just put the gun away
I remember summer days, I remember better days
I remember

When the bitch just wanna brag and my whip goes super fast
I can never lie to you 'cause you my angel in disguise
When I look up in the sky, it reminds me of the high
When the lows kick in, I just really wanna die, yeah
But every dark has its own bright
And even if I get my might
It's looking like it's out of sight (Looking like it's—, looking like it's—)
But every dark has its own bright
And even if I get my might
It's looking like it's out of sight (Looking like it's—, looking like it's—)

Living in the moment, I ain't ever going back
I told my family I will make it, please just relax
And if this ain't an indicator that I'm moving fast
I'm climbing to the top and I ain't ever looking back
It's a new day, let's just runaway
2020 ain't the same
People walk in coffins, we don't stop it but we play it safe
Please just put the gun away

I remember summer days, I remember better days
