

Not Ready

Lil Xan

You smoke percs, takes Xans with that
Dripping the lean in that Fanta like that
I like a girl that don't know that she bad, I use to count up the pills that I had
Now I just count up the bands that I make
Now I'm just smiling in front of your face
They think I'm dead but I'm wide awake, no I'm not ready to die today
Yeah, yeah
No I'm not ready to die to today
No I'm not ready to die to today
No I'm not ready to die to today
They think I'm dead but I'm wide awake

I guess I came back at a bad time, I don't need sleep ain't no bed time
Been stacking my bread til my money right
Been building connections and boosting my confidence
I find it funny that y'all believe non sense
If it's in the internet, you best go double check
I'm a dog I need a vet
Leave a mark up on her neck
Haters talk a lot of hate
I can't hear you boy this shit is loud, they don't know me I don't come around
Busy taking pictures in the crowd
Throwing shots when I'm outta town
They throwing shots like it's outta bounds
I line em up and she rack em down
Tell me she hate me but I know she playing
I hate who she dating, I am who I am
Thinks she's the devil, in love with these demons
I'm not calling treason
I'm searching for reasons
Can you believe it? You smoke percs all day, no leaving
Now I feel great, ok life easy
My bitch great my life so breezy

You smoke percs, takes Xans with that
Dripping the lean in that Fanta like that
I like a girl that don't know that she bad, I use to count up the pills that I had
Now I just count up the bands that I make
Now I'm just smiling in front of your face
They think I'm dead but I'm wide awake, no I'm not ready to die today
Yeah, yeah
No I'm not ready to die to today
No I'm not ready to die to today
No I'm not ready to die to today
They think I'm dead but I'm wide awake
