Lila Iké

Hmm oooh yeah
Yeah
Let me paint a picture
Can I Show you
Exactly how I feel right now
Yeah

Yo it's been feeling like Summer time in my mind
But no sun
Really I'm tryna say it's no fun
And I've been trying with my might to hold on Like I'm out of time but the show must go on Everybody says "you'll be fine, you so strong"
Anyways put it all in your songs
But when do I get a chance to be me
To cry, to feel weak
To breathe, to be free

Damn, this shit is serious
All this pain so tired of feeling it
Every day's the same
Can I be rid of it
Who feels it knows
Who feels it knows

Damn, this shit is serious
All this pain so tired of feeling it
Every day's the same
Can I be rid of it
Who feels it knows, knows

Actually sat and plot a plan
I weighed the pro's against the cons
Ayo dem wouldn't understand how much it take fi carry on
When your minds under attack
And you've given all you got
But you just can't make it stop
That shit will hold you back

I keep giving thanks fi all the realest helping hands
Ay Protoje, you a me Don
So many times you keep me strong
Like, Lila, please be wise
Don't be your own demise
I need you to survive
And keep this thing alive

Damn, this shit is serious
All this pain so tired of feeling it
Every day's the same
Can I be rid of it
Who feels it knows
Who feels it knows

Damn, this shit is serious
All this pain so tired of feeling it
Every day's the same

Can I be rid of it
Who feels it knows
Who feels it knows

Damn, this shit is serious
All this pain so tired of feeling it
Every day's the same
Can I be rid of it
Who feels it knows yeah

Yes, it gets serious
All the pain so tired of feeling it
Can I, I
