If I Could Save Her From Sadness

Lily Allen

When she was just a little girl
And she'd come home from school in tears
I dry her eyes and tell her it'll be alright
Now look at her, she's all grown up
With nothing, but a broken heart
And I think to myself

Where did I go wrong
What more could I have done
How could I have prepared her better

If only I could save her from her sadness
If only I could take away her pain
If only I could make her see
There's plenty more fish in the sea
I know that I'd breath easily again
