

Just Enough

Lily Allen

I think you're in love
With somebody else
Felt you pull away
And now, I'm blaming myself
You keep me in the dark
Tell yourself it's kind
Protect me from the pain
Meanwhile, I'm losing my mind

Look at my reflection
I feel so drawn, so old
I booked myself a facelift
Wondering how long it might hold
I gave you all my power
How I'm seen through your eyes
Through your eyes

But you
You give me just enough
Hope to hold on to
Nothing
Yeah, you
You give me just enough
Hope to hold on to
Nothing

Did you fall in love
With someone who isn't me?
Why are we here talking about vasectomies?
Did you get someone pregnant?
Someone who isn't me?
Did you take her to the clinic?
Did you hold her hand?
Is she having your baby?

But you
You give me just enough
Hope to hold on to
Nothing
Yeah, you
You give me just enough
Hope to hold on to
Don't you
