

What You Waiting For?

Lily Allen

Girl have di wrong man ah cheat on
You ah preach, better you go check a deacon, yeah

Yuh situation yuh can't help
Not the way yuh do it can help
Sorry nor please can help me

So if I forgive, mi say one ting, now live yuhself
Love down deh yuh soul
Failing me who placed yuh upon a far up pinnacle
If me forgive ya it haffa be a miracle

I turned a strong man weak
I threw him down, brought him to his knees
I'm hoping somehow he'll forgive me
I think to myself

What you waiting for?
You'll never be sure
Swinging back and forth
Just leave him alone
What you waiting for?
You'll never be sure
Swinging back and forth
I just don't know, know, know

Now the dust has settled
I should probably level with you
Meant it when I said "I do"
Don't know why I was untrue
With everything I put you through
How'd it make you feel if I said I still love you
If I could go back, select all press undo
Never thought we'd be this couple
I ran at the first sign of trouble

I turned a strong man weak
I threw him down, brought him to his knees
I'm hoping somehow he'll forgive me
I think to myself

What you waiting for?
You'll never be sure
Swinging back and forth
Just leave him alone
What you waiting for?
You'll never be sure
Swinging back and forth
I just don't know, know, know

Girl have di wrong man ah cheat on
You-a preach, better you go check a deacon, yeah
Oyo
Girl-girl had it wrong man-a cheating
You-a preach, better you go check a deacon, yeah
