

Grand Illusion

Lily Kershaw

I ain't got no fear of God
I ain't got no fear of you
Oh, the grand illusion
Tells me all that I've been through

Was it worth it all the push and pull
The lovesick nights and the way we were
Oh, I am beginning to say the truth

Skies like tattoos from my youth
And memories that can't be used
Oh, I'm beginning to say the truth
Oh, I'm beginning to say the truth

Baby sleep [?]
Tell me I'm not [?]
Haunting your day dreams
Baby I'm [?] on the other side

Oh I don't know what it means to be alive
Alive, alive, alive

I ain't got no fear of God
I ain't got no fear of you
You touch me with the kind of love
And now I know the truth
