

More (The Great Escape)

Lily Kershaw

I want something that hurts me deeply
I've got nothing to lose, no life to choose
I'm on my way
Think of all those days we spent awake
Looking for the great escape
Built to break, looking to scorn
I want you and I want more

When we were broken down
I found the sound
Oh I looked at you and all I saw
Was salvation

I think of all those days we spent awake
Looking for the great escape
Built to break, looking to scorn
I want you and I want more

Think of all those days we spent awake
Looking for the great escape
Built to break, looking to scorn
I want you and I want more

Think of all those days we spent awake
Looking for the great escape
Built to break, looking to scorn
I want you and I want more
