

Devil

Lily Lane

Yeah, yeah, yeah

I was cast in a role that I never auditioned for
Made into a girl who I'd never met before
Villainized for the clothes everyone else wore
I just can't take no more, I just can't take no more

If I'm gonna be the bad guy, I wanna be the worst
It's gotta be a blessing to be this much of a curse
If I'm gonna be the bad guy, I wanna be the worst
It's gotta be a blessing to be this much of a curse

Oh, Lord
If it makes, if it makes you feel better
Then just call me the devil
La la la, la la la, la la la, ah
La la la la
If it makes, if it makes you feel better
Then just call me the devil
La la la, la la la, la la la, ah

So far past apologies, I can't tell you what I need
Wanna forget all of it, I'm praying for inner peace
If this ain't my destiny then I need a sweet release
Sometimes I forget to breathe, sometimes I forget to breathe

If I'm gonna be the bad guy, I wanna be the worst
It's gotta be a blessing to be this much of a curse
If I'm gonna be the bad guy, I wanna be the worst
It's gotta be a blessing to be this much of a curse

Oh, Lord
If it makes, if it makes you feel better
Then just call me the devil
La la la, la la la, la la la, ah
La la la la
If it makes, if it makes you feel better
Then just call me the devil
La la la, la la la, la la la, ah

I can be everything you see in your nightmare
You're not gonna play fair
I can be everything they warned you to fear now
Your conscience ain't clear now

They say there are two sides to every story
But no one asked for mine, said it was boring
They say there are two sides to every story
And now I bet you're really feeling sorry

If it makes, if it makes you feel better (if it makes you)
Then just call me the devil
La la la, la la la, la la la, ah (oh-oh-oh-oh)
La la la la
If it makes, if it makes you feel better (if it, if it, oh-oh)
Then just call me the devil
La la la, la la la, la la la, ah (whoa, whoa, whoa)

La la la la

La la la, la la la, la la la, ah
