

Sewing Machine

Lily Meola

Watched you for hours
Staying up late
You always taught me that love is handmade
From bows on the schoolyard too young to unlace
To making me feel pretty on my prom date
I'll always keep you close

Whenever I feel myself fall apart
The heart on my sleeve isn't there anymore
Stitching the pieces into the dark
Put me together when life gets hard
You don't know what you mean to me
Sewing machine
(Ooh, ooh)
(Ooh, ooh)

You've seen the heartbreak
The hope and the pain
Show me that patience is always worth the wait
And I'm not as good as her
But I always try my best
We reap what we sew
That's what Momma said

Whenever I feel myself fall apart
The heart on my sleeve isn't there anymore
Stitching the pieces into the dark (ooh)
Put me together when life gets hard
You don't know what you mean to me
Sewing machine
(Ooh, ooh)
(Ooh, ooh)

Whenever I feel myself fall apart
The heart on my sleeve isn't there anymore
Stitching the pieces into the dark (ooh)
Put me together when life gets hard
You don't know what you mean to me
