Even when I see you again
I feel nothing

When I hold your hand
I don't get nervous

Boring hours pass
Yeah, at some point
When I'm with you
I feel like it's getting old

I feel things
Becoming paralyzed
My heartbeat gets slower
I feel us growing farther apart

In the end, we're no different
From the people we couldn't understand
We're breaking up for
The same reasons as they are Getting sick of each other

We ask about each other out of obligation
A repetition of meaningless
And fake smiles
It's a sad bitterness but what can I do?
I have to own up to it

Even when I see you
I feel nothing
When I hold your hand
I don't get nervous

As soon as we meet
We try to see when
We can say goodbye, right?
You know that this isn't love
It's pressure, right?
It's time we broke up
There's no truth
By our sides
We've become worse
Than just friends now

Even when I see you again
I feel nothing
When I hold your hand
I don't get nervous

I can't look into your eyes anymore
I don't wanna lie anymore
I erased the meaning of love
I love you, I love you
(Yeah me too)

Even when I see you
I feel nothing
I don't get nervous
