

I keep hustlin', hustlin', hustlin' harder
We crossin' the, crossin' the, crossin' the hurdle

Speak out, word up
Load a gun with a ball, time to start off a new role
Speak out, word up
Fight back in full stride, off to start a new goal

No longer silenced, we stand up brave
You can't block or control it
I need to change up this game
Don't identify self in male gaze
Wait till my voice be heard
Buildin' my world on me
Take dirty hands off of me
Bigger the fights, bigger rewards
Fire, trigger go bang

Get up strong, make your own, it's in our hands
Shake up strong, crack the form, this is our age

Speak out, word up
Load a gun with a ball, time to start off a new role
Speak out, word up
Fight back in full stride, off to start a new goal

Count on my absence
It contains a message
No, I don't compromise, can't get me sabotaged
I'm talkin' real representation
Knockin' down walls, struggle and take over seats
Stop askin' me wrong
I execute, carryin' out mission
Reorient, redefinition

Get up strong, make your own, it's in our hands
Shake up strong, crack the form, this is our age

Head down when I pull up
Strike hard when it's cooled off
I'm unfuckable creature
Not a young average school girl
Decolonize from weakness
Overpower the system
Staying raw is my wisdom
Wilderness into kingdom
