

Through The Vast Profundity Obscure

Limbonic Art

Carry me into the shadowy realm of dreams and illusions
Where the streams of life and death serenely glide
Beyond the mystified, void of spectre light
I watch in awe and silence

The unexplained
None can resist the shadows lure
Surreptitious mindscapes
Through the vast profundity obscure

Touched by the dark aesthetic grace of the night
Strange primaeval yearnings, powers recondite
It calls for me, pleading me to enter

Unreservedly
Absolute inapprochability
Fearful and fascinating mystery
A mystery that creates fear and yet fascinates

By the mystic arts of the dark
Stars illuminate my obscure path
Sleeping with ghosts, dancing with shadows
Mysterium tremendum et fascinans
