

Addicted to the Sunshine

Lime Cordiale

I guess it will last but I don't know how
If I sit on my ass, will the world still go 'round?
I'm stuck to my habits, I know
I'm not alone

I'm not doing much but it's happening
I lie on my back and let it all soak in
If I didn't have it, would I know
Where I belong?

If you love her in that way
You'll listen to what your mother says
Give a little bit if you're gonna take

We're addicted to the sunshine, alright
Find it hard to get uptight
And as long as we keep darkness out of sight
We're addicted to the sunshine, that's true
With those green and fertile views
Undisturbed by what we do
Sometimes

We wait for the sunset, for the day to die
And beauty is leaving with a bloody sky
So there you have it, the past
Was good while it lasts

If you love her in that way
You'll listen to what your mother says
Give a little bit if you're gonna take

We're addicted to the sunshine, alright
Find it hard to get uptight
And as long as we keep darkness out of sight
We're addicted to the sunshine, that's true
With those green and fertile views
Undisturbed by what we do
Sometimes

(We're addicted to the sunshine, we're all)
(We're addicted to the sunshine, we're all)
(We're addicted to the sunshine, we're all)
(We're addicted to the sunshine, we're all)

We're addicted to the sunshine, alright
Find it hard to get uptight
And as long as we keep darkness out of sight
We're addicted to the sunshine, that's true
With those green and fertile views
Undisturbed by what we do
Sometimes

(Sunshine, sunshine, sunshine)
