

Faceless Cat

Lime Cordiale

When I'm buying chewing gum from the supermarche
I see a faceless cat on the front of every magazine
They give one little look and those cameras
Won't forget she's the less [?] I have ever seen

And now my girl's getting sucked in Good thing she's lucky yeah she's a lucky girl
She's not one of those creatures, she's got features
She's got a lot of good things going on in her brain

(One, two, you know what to do)
Too many girls behind a faceless cat
Too many girls behind a faceless cat
Too many girls behind a faceless cat
Too many girls behind a faceless cat

She wouldn't even have a piece of cake!
What no chocolate for God's sake no vanilla shake with a little flakety flake
Sugar she won't take she won't eat but she does bake
No she wouldn't even have a ginger nut with her tea

Too many girls behind a faceless cat
Too many girls behind a faceless cat
Too many girls behind a faceless cat
Too many girls behind a faceless cat
Too many girls behind a faceless cat
Too many girls behind a faceless cat
Too many girls behind a faceless cat

Too many girls behind a faceless cat

Too many girls behind a faceless cat
Too many girls behind a faceless cat
