Lime Cordiale

Baby, recently
I've been looked at differently
And trust me, I've had difficulty
Talking to you when you're looking at a screen

Jealousy
I've seen those boys mustardly keen
Looking at you through the paparazzi
I like your body babe
But not when it's on the front page of a magazine

Oh baby when you're famous
Will you still look at me the same?
Oh baby when you're famous
Will you still want to know my name?

You got a role
On a hit TV show
Old friends track you down
Say I'm still around
I've gotta' compete
With people that people don't meet
Publicly
Can't go where we'll be seen
I'll book you in with your secretary
And finally if you've got time for me
Will it be like it's always been

Oh baby when you're famous
Will you still look at me the same?
Oh baby when you're famous
When you made yourself a name

Now I've got you to worry about
And I'm the one in the public's view
