

Holiday

Lime Cordiale

Now she don't mind a vino
On a drinking in the morning type of day
Sunshine in Toledo
But I'm cooped up in the hotel room all day

All we need is for us to get away (get away)
All we want is for us to hide away (hide away)

I'm going out without ya
I thought you'd be about it
So cliché, I knew it'd end up this way
She said it's meant to be a holiday

I'm going out without ya
I thought you'd be about it
So cliché, I knew it'd end up this way
She said it's meant to be a holiday

Don't make this trip a guilt trip
Don't ask me what the time is, I'm not fazed
Stripping for a quick dip
I'm not taking calls when I'm this blazed

All we need is for us to get away (get away)
All we want is for us to hide away (hide away)

I'm going out without ya
I thought you'd be about it
So cliché, I knew it'd end up this way
She said it's meant to be a holiday

Let's put it on silent, airplane mode
Let me hear some sand in my toes
Feels good, don't it?
Let me get some wind through my hair
Mm, so good
Let me get some sunshine on my back
Alright now
Now, you know what? Pour me a drink
More ice
A little bit of tonic in the water
Okay, shake it up
Shake it up
Shake it up

I'm going out without ya
I thought you'd be about it
So cliché, I knew it'd end up this way
She said it's meant to be a holiday

I'm going out without ya
I thought you'd be about it
So cliché, I knew it'd end up this way
She said it's meant to be a holiday

It's meant to be a holiday
It's meant to be a holiday

(There you go, the sounds of Cordi Elba, brand-new track)
It's meant to be a holiday
(7:45 on the dot) It's meant to be a holiday
