

Is He Your Man

Lime Cordiale

Maybe we're just not right
But he's not all that bright
You're shimmering golden light
And it misleads me all the time
And don't leave my side
Don't tell him I was crying
Someone's gonna leave upset
You won't waste your breath

Maybe this is what I need
Put me back on my feet
Yeah I wouldn't bet but I guess
You're taken
I know so well when you lie
Don't wanna be here part-time
Yeah I'm not upset, not yet
Just tell me

Is he your man
Is he your man
Is he your man
Because he won't stop calling

Is he your guy
Is he your guy
Is he your guy
Because he won't stop calling

Maybe you're just plain hard
Not more than meets the eye
But maybe I'm just uptight
Give him the same green light
Don't make me smile
Oh hold it back a while
Someones gonna leave upset
If he comes in again

Maybe this is what I need
Pull me back on my feet
Yeah I wouldn't bet but I guess
You're taken
I know so well when you lie
Don't wanna be here part-time
Yeah I'm not upset not yet
Just tell me

Is he your man
Is he your man
Is he your man
Because he won't stop calling

Is he your guy
Is he your guy
Is he your guy
Because he won't stop calling

Is he your man

Is he your man
Is he your man
Because he won't stop calling

Is he your guy
Is he your guy
Is he your guy
Because he won't stop calling
