

On Our Own

Lime Cordiale

All our friends are gone
And we're on our own
Nobody
Can pull us off the floor now
You lock the bedroom door
Pants down

Always at your best
In that yellow dress
Well who'd believe
With you up in your rich world
You fell into a ditch
Somehow

I don't know how
We're finally on our own now baby
I just don't care
I'll always want you here now baby
With time now to ourselves
We know just how it feels
But I don't know how
We're finally on our own now baby

Yeah who would've known
That we could move on
We're laughing
Tying up our loose ends
With that old excuse
"We'll be friends"

Could get used to this
I love my loneliness
What I need
Is no one locking me down
Running around free
Cause I'm already out

I don't know how
We're finally on our own now baby
I just don't care
I'll always want you here now baby
With time now to ourselves
We know just how it feels
But I don't know how
We're finally on our own now

Just when you think you're alright
Your days are behind you
You can't press rewind
Now you're not so blinded
And why was I pushing everyone away

Just when you think you're okay
You're finally awake
But at the back of your brain
It keeps on replaying
Why do I keep pushing everyone away?

I don't know how
I just don't care
With time now to myself
I know just how it feels
I'm finally on my own now
