

Waking Up Easy

Lime Cordiale

Sun, rise
Bloodshot eyes
Head, burns
Cheap white wine
I remember last night
And it still feels good in the daylight
No running or hiding
That is
So suddenly surprising

I don't wanna stay
Maybe I'm afraid
To find out if you were gonna feel it in a different way
Any other day
Making my escape
Anything I gotta do
It can wait

I'm waking up easy
For the first time
I stare at the ceiling
And I don't mind
'Cause we could do this all day
'Cause we could do this all day
I'm waking up easy
Waking up easy
Waking up easy
I'm waking up easy
Waking up easy
Waking up easy
Waking up easy

Do you remember me last night?
'Cause I was obviously doing something right
But now with the lights on
Well I look different now all the drinks are gone

Are you gonna stay
Cause now I'm afraid
To find out if you were gonna feel it in a different way
Want another day
Yeah I wanna stay
Anything I gotta do
It can wait

I'm waking up easy
For the first time
I stare at the ceiling
And I don't mind
'Cause we could do this all day
'Cause we could do this all day
I'm waking up easy
Waking up easy
Waking up easy
I'm waking up easy
Waking up easy
Waking up easy
Waking up easy

Maybe it is safe just to walk away
Maybe its safe
Maybe it is safe just to walk away
Maybe its safe
Oh maybe I'll stay

And I'll be waking up easy
For the first time
I stare at the ceiling
And I don't mind
'Cause we could do this all day
'Cause we could do this all day

I'm waking up easy
For the first time
I stare at the ceiling
And I don't mind
'Cause we could do this all day, yeah
Yeah, cause we could do this all day
I'm waking up easy
Waking up easy
Waking up easy, mmmm yeah
I'm waking up easy
Waking up easy
Waking up easy
Waking up easy, oh yeah

I'm waking up easy
Waking up easy
Waking up easy mmmmm
