

What Is Growing Up?

Lime Cordiale

What is growing up?
Is it fighting for a cause
For a lazy motherfucker but I do stuff
A little push and shove
Just enough, to keep my soul, tongue and brain ticking with a nice touch

Keep me layin' in the sun
And snoozin' my alarms, but now and then I get the buzz to go get on some
You don't see worried eyes
Not terrified
I don't need to keep my grass greener than the other guys

What is growing up?
Is your love so tough? (When's your love's so tough?)
Do you keep your arms crossed?
Have you had enough?
What is growing up?

What is growing up?
Is your love so tough? (Your love's so tough?)
Do you keep your arms crossed?
Have you had enough?
What is growing up? Yeah

Boozy afternoon
Not much for me to lose
I don't need much at all
I don't need much at all

Searching for the purpose
No family's in the works
That's the least of it all
That's the least of it all
Yeah

What is growing up?
Is your love so tough? (Your love's so tough?)
Do you keep your arms crossed?
Have you had enough?
What is growing up?
What is growing up?

Is your love so tough? (When's your love's so tough?)
Do you keep your arms crossed?
Have you had enough?
What is growing up yeah yeah
