

Cinderella

Limi

That Panamera dripping right
Wrapped in the color of the night, I
I didn't mean to get so fly
I see no limit but the sky

Swear to God, we're out to make it
Heavens know that I've been patient, yeah
We set a different expectation
Now we're running with the greatest

Yeah, see me
Diamonds got you in your feelings
Does it hurt to see me winning
Thought you left me with no choice
Yeah

But this ain't no Cinderella, ella
Know that feelings never last forever, ever
In the end you see the picture shatter, shatter
Say they get me
It's a lie lie lie
No, this ain't no Cinderella, ella
They only care about you on your way up, way up
Now they wish that they could do me better, better
Tryna sell me
Sour candy

I know how to be alone
Bigger than a star back home
Run it, run it, run it back
Uh-huh, have you checked the numbers yet

Stalking my location
Trying to find a way in
Wasting all your time
Blowing up my line
Cut communication
Now you're talking crazy
Keep me off your mind
Mind

Yeah, see me
Diamonds got you in your feelings
Does it hurt to see me winning
Thought you left me with no choice
Yeah

But this ain't no Cinderella, ella
Know that feelings never last forever, ever
In the end you see the picture shatter, shatter
Say they get me
It's a lie lie lie
No, this ain't no Cinderella, ella
They only care about you on your way up, way up
Now they wish that they could do me better, better
Tryna sell me
Sour candy
