

Hiding

Limi

You had the time to do this right
You had a chance to be the one
You chose a path away from us
Thought you're winning
But you've given in

You sold your soul for a low price, yeah
Burnt by the fire that you started, I
Know you ran every light, yeah
On your way over here

I'm tainted
Blinded by illusions that you've painted
Should've seen your act from the beginning
Gave you everything but you're ungrateful
Now I'm jaded

Ooh, I
I know what you've been hiding
Tell me why
You're trying to deny it
Cause I
I know when you are lying
Every word
Every touch
Guess I gave you too much
And I
I
Should've known that you're a liar
It's too late to say you're trying
When you set my world on fire
So ignite it
Now

Too late to try
Too late to go back
Some things are far
Too hard to forget
Don't know why you had
To do me like that
To do me like that, yeah

I'm tainted
Blinded by illusions that you've painted
Should've seen your act from the beginning
Gave you everything but you're ungrateful
Now I'm jaded

Ooh, I
I know what you've been hiding
Tell me why
You're trying to deny it
Cause I
I know when you are lying
Every word
Every touch
Guess I gave you too much

And I
Should've known that you're a liar
It's too late to say you're trying
When you set my world on fire
So ignite it
Now
