

Interlude

Limi

Oh
Take it or leave it
You know it gets dangerous when we let ourselves get in our feelings
Looking for ways out of this place in someone else's arms
Because you chose to let us fall out of love

Lies that you tell me
I guess you just can't set me free
But still, I know you won't be here
By tomorrow
You leave cause you know that I'll follow
And I would ride until the end

You've given me love but it meant nothing
Yeah
Breaking my heart, you kill me softly
Yeah
Now it's hitting you hard that you have lost me
To somebody else, yeah
To somebody else

Now we're drifting
Drifting away
Tried to explain, but you don't wanna listen
Nothing to say when you call and I miss it
Walking away just to say that you miss it
But you don't really miss it, yeah
