

Tunnel Vision

Limi

All of this time, you're
Still changing your mind
All of these nights that
I wasted on us
Chasing these diamonds
I found in your eyes
Now it's too late to say you want it
See me now
I got no limits now
I'm on my way
Driving away
Got a new vision down
Need no permissions now
I've been okay
With nothing to say
Always acting like you're good
But you ain't no good
Always acting like you would
But I know you won't
Always so damn insecure
I'm too much for you
Honestly
Now you see

I got tunnel vision now
On my way to something different now
Call my phone, it keeps on ringing out
Nothing left to hurt my feelings now
Oooh yeah
Tunnel vision now
Wide awake, I bet you see it now
All you knew was how to waste my time
Couldn't love me so you're bitter now

We went two different ways
You wanted things your way
You played your cards
But not for us
Too caught up in your games
To see that things have changed
You're out of luck
Now you're on those late night texts
Can't make amends, no
Hit you with the latest flex
I bet you care now
I know that you want it back
Can't be alone now
Won't let it go now
Need you to slow down

Wasted time on us
Don't know why
I got places to be
Don't need you, you need me
Hurts to see that

I got tunnel vision now

On my way to something different now
Oooh yeah
All you knew was how to waste my time
