

Goodbye

Limp Bizkit

Sometimes it's hard to sleep
When you're lying next to me
All the secrets that you keep
Always come out when you dream

I know you've been hiding things
You've turned into my lying king
But positively everything
I say to you is what I mean

It's time to go
All this water underneath the bridge is killin' me so slow
It's time to go
Time to elevate my quality of life on down the road

Even though you've apologized
Every time I catch you in a lie
You always say you're gonna try
But your words don't mean a thing when your actions make me cry

I know you've been hiding things
You've turned into my lying king
But positively everything
I say to you I always mean

It's time to go
All this water underneath the bridge is killin' me so slow
It's time to go
Time to elevate my quality of life on down the road

Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye (I wish you all the best)
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye (To my unhappiness)
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye (This is for myself)
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye (I'll always wish you well)
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye (I wish you all the best)

Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
