

Snacky Poo

Limp Bizkit

Mm

Choc- Chocolate on the starfish

Choc- Chocolate on the starfish, everybody kiss it

The name is L.B., I never hate to admit it

Takin' out you suckers and you don't know how I did it

Lately I've been snappy, I gave up on the fitteds

Sometimes up on a bucket, eventually I kick it

Chocolate on the starfish, everybody kiss it

I pray that you don't get it and I ain't even religious

I don't need your Insta, and I don't want your digits

Hit somebody else up when you're tryna sell your tickets

Everybody got a mic

Chasin' all they can to get another like

I don't need another motherfucker in my life

Lookin' at my life, givin' me a like (I need a snacky-poo)

Everybody got a mic

Chasin' all they can to get another like

I don't need another motherfucker in my life

Lookin' at my life, givin' me a like (I need a snacky-poo)

Chocolate on the star- Choc- Chocolate on the starfish

Chocolate on the starfish, everybody kiss it

Chocolate on the star- Choc- Chocolate on the starfish

Chocolate on the starfish, everybody kiss it

Your style is a pancake, time for me to flip it

How many times you gon' change how you rip it?

I'm sorry to say it, but ain't nothin' that can fix it

And you should play a forest 'cause your audience is crickets

Gotta love the crickets

I ain't tryna have it, so please don't try to give it

Your gift is kinda useless and I can't do nothin' with it

I'm glad that I don't know ya, it means that I don't miss ya

So if you see me out, don't come over here to visit

Lethal, turn it up, we burnin' up the kitchen

Freddie D gon' whip us up a batch you ain't forgettin'

I'm bringin' out the fixin's, too many to mention

And bring it back to '90s to ease up on the tension

Everybody got a mic

Chasin' all they can to get another like

I don't need another motherfucker in my life

Lookin' at my life, givin' me a like (I need a snacky-poo)

Everybody got a mic

Chasin' all they can to get another like

I don't need another motherfucker in my life

Lookin' at my life, givin' me a like (I need a snacky-poo)

Chocolate on the star- Choc- Chocolate on the starfish

Chocolate on the starfish, everybody kiss it

Chocolate on the star- Choc- Chocolate on the starfish
