L'Impératrice

Monkey see and monkey do
You're staring at the zoo
Keep going two by two
It's what they're waiting for

Don't let all your feelings through
Don't scream out of the blue
What if they're watching you?
What if you shut the door?

"Don't lie, don't be weak"
"The strong get to speak"
"Be cool, join the clique"
But where's your Mystique
Let's play hide and seek
Get out and be quick
You won't hush no-more

Just spit out the pill
It's how you can heal
It's time to reveal
There's something in you
A freak at the wheel
Just shout what you feel
Be crazy for real
The hill needs a fool

Temperature is on the rise
Among the suits and ties
You're chasing butterflies
Hovering above the floor

No more need to compromise
No tricks and no disguise
No consolation prize
The world is so much more

"Don't lie, don't be weak"
"The strong get to speak"
"Be cool, join the clique"
But where's your Mystique
Let's play hide and seek
Get out and be quick
You won't hush no-more

Just spit out the pill
It's how you can heal
It's time to reveal
There's something in you
A freak at the wheel
Just shout what you feel
Be crazy for real
The hill needs a fool
