

Luther Interlude

Lin-Manuel Miranda

Holy shit
What?
Warrior down
Woo
Strike a match, watch the world burn
Picked the wrong fight
Now she's in for a long night
Watch the world burn

This is fun
Kingdom come and thy will be done
Done, done, done, done, done
Who survives till the rise of the sun?
With two Warriors down and the rest on the run
Run, run, run, run, run, run

They may ask, "Why'd ya do it?
Why'd you go and make the world burn?"
"Why cause pain?" Life is pain
Life is pain, now it's your turn
Bang the drums, chaos comes in and rules us all
Fun, fun, fun, fun, fun
When you kill what they love, all bets are off
They want vengeance, start your engines
Run, run, run, run, run, run

Union Square, next stop, Union Square
Union Square, next stop, Union Square
Fuckin' foot on the gas until we're there
