

Oxygen

Lincoln Brewster

Wake up, eyes open wide to Mercy waiting that's brand new
Your love's taking me over again
Your hands, lifting me up so
I find wherever I go
Your love's taking me over again

You are life, every breath
You're the heart beating in my chest
I breathe out and breathe You in
I need You more than oxygen

Each step, I find that You are Speaking Your will to my heart
Your love leading me all of the way
You speak, I am an echo
Your voice, I choose to follow
Your love leading me all the way
All of the way

I need You more than anything
More than oxygen
