

Shine

Lincoln Brewster

What's this war that I'm fighting
It's such a mystery to me
My body's trying to own my mind
But there's a light inside of me
That I can't hide

I've got something burning up inside of me
When Your wind blows the flame it grows in me
Take me now Lord

My heart my soul my mind
I can see that it's time for me to shine

I just can't keep on hiding
The light that's keeping me alive
Your great love is consuming me
It's changing me
Cleansing me
It set me free
