

Your Love Is Amazing

Lincoln Brewster

Your love, is like a river
Rushing over me, rushing over me
So strong, like a mountain
Standing over me, standing over me

So fear won't get the best of me, I have hope eternally
It's alright, it's gonna be alright
Your promises are here to stay, greater things are on the way
It's alright, 'cause I know

Your love is amazing
Never-ending, unrelenting, I know
Your love is amazing
No condition, nothing missing, I know
Your love is amazing
Whoah, whoah, whoah

Your love, is like a fire
Burning in my soul, burning in my soul
So bright, it breaks the darkness
I know You're in control, You are always in control

So fear won't get the best of me, I have hope eternally
It's alright, it's gonna be alright
Your promises are here to stay, greater things are on the way
It's alright, 'cause I know, yeah

Your love is amazing
Never-ending, unrelenting, I know
Your love is amazing
No condition, nothing missing, I know
Your love is amazing

Oh, it's true
Nobody loves me like You
Loves me like You do
Just You
Nobody loves me like You
Loves me like You
Oh, it's true
Nobody loves me like You
Loves me like You do
Just You
Nobody loves me like You
Loves me like You do

Your love is amazing
Never-ending, unrelenting, I know
Your love is amazing
No condition, nothing missing, I know
Your love is amazing, whoah, whoah, I know
Your love is amazing, whoah, whoah, whoah
