

Everything Is Wrong

Lincoln

I haven't been feeling
So good as of late
It's another perfect night
To spend wide awake
After one more bad day in a row
You reap what you sow

It's a bittersweet dream
I could taste but not see
You sang it to me
Then I could hear, feel and see

Irony panic attacks
Compression, artifacts
Words, buzzwords, synonyms
McMansions, satanic hymns
Signs of insignificance
Premature enlightenment

Pink champagne, socialism
Oedipus, onanism
Radical Christianity
Nepotist bestiality
Water falls, fire flies
Angry laughs and happy cries

I haven't been feeling
So good as of late
How do you know you're really awake

Irony panic attacks
Compression, artifacts
Words, buzzwords, synonyms
McMansions, satanic hymns
Signs of insignificance
Premature enlightenment

Pink champagne, socialism
Oedipus, onanism
Radical Christianity
Nepotist bestiality
Water falls, fire flies
Angry laughs and happy cries
