

Tell Him I Said Hello

Linda Ronstadt

When you see him tell him things are slow
There's a reason and he's sure to know
But on second thought, forget it
Just tell him I said, "Hello"

If he asks you when I come and go
Say I stay home 'cause I miss him so
But on second thought, forget it
Just tell him I said, "Hello"

Look into his eyes
When you speak my name
Maybe there's a spark
To start another flame

Do I love him, don't say yes or no?
If he should ask you but he won't, I know
'Cause it's all over and forgotten
Just tell him I said, "Hello"

Look into his eyes
When you speak my name
Maybe there's a spark
To start another flame

Do I love him, don't say yes or no?
If he should ask you but he won't, I know
'Cause it's all over and forgotten
Just tell him I said, "Hello"
