

One World

Lindisfarne

Hull

Baby let me take you by the hand show you something for to see.
When you grown I know you understand.
One sky, one sea, one world will be.

Know you growing in a broken world
the future spread its wings so wide.
Don't giving the tide is on the turn.
One land, one home, one world will come.

Chorus:

One world will be, one world is free, one world will surely come
'cause if the men in grey, never get their way
for certain we'll have none.

One sky, one sea, one world will be.

Chorus:

One world will be, one world is free, one world will surely come
'cause if the men in grey, never get their ways
for certain we'll have none.

3.)

Oh, let me walking thru the promised land.
feel the wind in the air.
All is changing like the ship in sand.

One sky, one home, one world will be

one land, one home, one world will come

one sky, one home, one world will be

one land, one home, one world will come
