

Always Kiss the Girl

Lindsay Ell

Sometimes you gotta take her downtown
Sometimes you gotta let her go out
Sometimes you gotta say a lot
Sometimes you gotta shut your mouth
Sometimes you gotta let her sit shotgun
Sometimes she's gonna wanna drive
Sometimes you gotta call ahead
Sometimes you gotta just show up
Sometimes you gotta do a little extra
Sometimes you gotta know enough's enough
Sometimes you're gonna know the answer
Sometimes you're gonna wonder why, yeah

There's no black or white
There's no every time answer
There's no cut and dry
Wrong or right card to hand her
But watch any movie
It's all the same ending
If you're ever in doubt
It's not even a question

Always, always, always
Always kiss the girl
Always, always, always
Always kiss the girl
Always, always
Always kiss the girl

Sometimes you gotta call it early
Sometimes you gotta on and on
Sometimes you gotta speak your heart
Sometimes you gotta have a little line
Sometimes you gotta make a plan
Sometimes you gotta improvise, yeah

There's no black or white
There's no every time answer
There's no cut and dry
Wrong or right card to hand her
But watch any movie
It's all the same ending
If you're ever in doubt
It's not even a question

Always, always, always
Always kiss the girl
Always, always, always
Always kiss the girl
Always, always

Don't think about it, don't think about it
No
Always kiss the girl

There's no black or white

Always, always, always
Always kiss the girl
Always, always, always
Always kiss the girl
Always, always
Always, always, always
Always kiss the girl
Always, always, always
Always kiss the girl
Always, always
