

good on you

Lindsay Ell

I thought that breaking up would be easier to do
The way we said goodbye was like nobody could lose, yeah
I saw a story of you in your living room
She was so beautiful, you were laughing like a fool

I know that forever wasn't in our cards
And I know I said it wouldn't break my heart, but

That white t-shirt
Looks good on ya
Yeah, your big smile
Looks good on ya
You got your wheels back, on the track
Yeah, your needle's found that groove
You got a new girl
Looks good on ya
She rockin' your world
Well, good on ya
I told you to be happy
But I hate how happy looks so
Good on you
Looks so good on you

I guess I'm jealous but
It's not because of her, no
It's more the way you went
And got over me first

You went and got yourself a dog, went and bought a fancy car, but
It ain't those things that makes it so damn hard

That white t-shirt
Looks good on ya
Yeah, your big smile
Looks good on ya
You got your wheels back, on the track
Yeah, your needle's found that groove
You got a new girl
Looks good on ya
She rockin' your world
Well, good on ya
I told you to be happy
But I hate how happy looks so
Good on you

And just so you know
I'm happy too
That's just the way it goes
Getting over you, ah, yeah

I know that forever wasn't in our cards
I know I said, it wouldn't break my heart, but

That white t-shirt
Looks good on ya
Yeah, your big smile
Looks good on ya

You got your wheels back, on the track
You got a new girl
Looks good on ya
She rocking your world
Well, good on ya
Good on you

Looks so good on you
And I hate it
I hate how happy looks so good you
