Lindsay Ell

I still remember what it felt like
Seeing Paris for the first time
How the street lights shine
When it rains all night
I remember what it felt like

And that's a thing I hold onto
When I got no where to run to
When my feet get tired
Walking on a high wire
Just tryna hold on

If you asked me
I'm not jaded
But I'm two seconds
From breaking

I'd give it all up to get back to when
I didn't think about what would happen next
I'd give it all up to get it back again
I still believe, I still believe in magic
I still believe, I still believe in magic
I still believe, I still believe

I'm still putting up a good fight
But now I'm praying for a lifeline
And I wonder how long, I can even go on
If this is what it's gonna feel like

I wonder, where the stars went
They shine brighter, in the darkness

I'd give it all up to get back to when
I didn't think about what would happen next
I'd give it all up to get it back again
I still believe, I still believe in Looking up high when I'm wondering
If one day this is gonna mean something but I'd Give it all up to get it back again
I still believe, I still believe

Will I always be
Holding my breath trying swim upstream?
Crazy as it might seem
I still believe
I still believe in magic
After all this time
Seeing a spark through the tears I've cried
And I don't know why
I still believe, I still believe in magic
I still believe, I still believe in magic

I'd give it all up
I'd give it all up, yeah
I'd give it all up, mmm

I'd give it all up to get back to when

I didn't think about what would happen next
I'd give it all up to get it back again
I still believe, I still believe

Maybe I won't always be
Holding my breath trying swim upstream?
I'd give it all up to get it back again
I still believe
I still believe in magic
After all this time
Seeing a spark through the tears I've cried
I'd give it all up to get it back again
I still believe, I still believe in magic

I still believe, I still believe in magic
