

Waiting on You

Lindsay Ell

What's not to like 'bout this new love thing?
Midnight kisses, slow dances in the rain
But you got my heart beating fast
Where this is going, baby, I can't say
Every time you leave me, I just want you to stay
But I gotta know where you stand

Like the dry ground
Waiting for the rain to fall down
I'm a July sky, you're a bottle rocket
I'm waiting on you
Like a sailboat wishing for the wind to blow
Like a fast car looking for the green to go
I'm right here, baby
Don't keep me waiting on you

I'm not talkin' 'bout no diamond rings
White picket fences, those forever things
But you gotta make your move

Like the dry ground
Waiting for the rain to fall down
I'm a July sky, you're a bottle rocket
I'm waiting on you
Like a sailboat wishing for the wind to blow
Like a fast car looking for the green to go
I'm right here, baby
Don't keep me waiting on you

Like the dry ground
Waiting for the rain to fall down
I'm a July sky, you're a bottle rocket
I'm waiting on you
Like a sailboat wishing for the wind to blow
Like a fast car looking for the green to go
I'm right here, baby
Don't keep me waiting on you

I'm right here, baby
Don't keep me waiting on you
